GANGNAM

Gangnam, often called the heart of Seoul, is one of the city's most lively and exciting districts. Known for its trendy culture, modern skyline, and vibrant lifestyle, it attracts people from all over the world. As a major economic and transportation hub and one of Seoul's most luxurious and affluent districts, Gangnam offers students an ideal opportunity to experience everyday Korean life in a dynamic urban environment.

The district has a unique energy that blends sleek buildings with creativity and constant change. Students can feel the pulse of modern Korean culture as they move through the streets, enjoying the style, trends, and rhythm of city life.

Lexis Gangnam Campus sits in the heart of this bustling area and is famously linked to "Gangnam Style." With modern facilities and a welcoming, diverse community, it's an ideal space to learn Korean while connecting with classmates and locals.

Outside the campus, students can stroll through the neighborhood, visit a trendy café, or explore lively streets, naturally practicing Korean while soaking in the fast moving city's vibe. With convenient transport, the rest of Seoul is always within reach, allowing students to balance study with exploring the city, visiting museums and UNESCO World Heritage sites, or discovering new corners of the neighborhood.

HONGDAE

Hongdae is a lively district where fresh ideas, artistic expression, and a welcoming community shape everyday life in Seoul. Often called the heart of youth and creativity, it is one of Seoul's rising cultural destinations, blending modern trends with an imaginative spirit that inspires students seeking a unique and authentic environment. With several renowned universities nearby, the area naturally radiates youthful energy and a vibrant, creative atmosphere.

The streets of Hongdae are lined with colorful murals, design studios, independent bookstores offering endless opportunities to experience contemporary Korean culture. Students can explore these spaces and connect naturally with the city, making language learning feel alive and closely linked to daily life.

Just a short walk from the main areas, students can join seasonal art markets, community events, creating chances to engage with the community and immerse themselves in authentic Korean culture.

These qualities make Hongdae an unforgettable place to study Korean. Known for its youthful energy, the district offers a vibrant and inspiring environment where students can discover brilliant ideas and create lasting memories.

BUSAN

Busan, Korea's second largest city, located at the southern tip of Korea, has a unique charm distinct from Seoul, blending lively city life with stunning coastal landscapes and nearby mountains. Often called Korea's summer capital, the city attracts visitors with its scenic beaches and rich cultural landmarks creating an environment that inspires students seeking a unique and authentic experience.

Haeundae and Gwangalli beaches are just a short distance away and host seasonal festivals and concerts. At the largest local fish market Jagalchi, students can enjoy fresh seafood, and events such as the International Film Festival provide opportunities to explore Korean culture firsthand.

Busan enjoys a mild climate and relatively affordable living costs compared to Seoul, making it an ideal city for long-term study. As a major southern city, it is conveniently connected to Seoul by just a 2.5-hour journey by the high-speed train.

The city's vibrant urban life, combined with its beautiful coastal environment, allows students to live comfortably while enjoying various leisure activities whenever they wish. These distinctive qualities give students a special memory that makes them want to return to Busan, making it a truly unique place to study Korean.

MINI STUDIO

GANGNAM | HONGDAE | BUSAN

Age to Apply 19+

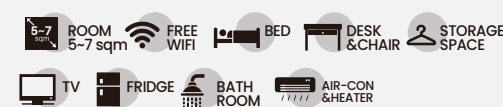

Lexis Korea can arrange accommodation from a range of mini-studio options in Seoul (Gangnam & Hongdae) and Busan (Seomyeon). Mini-studios—known locally as ‘goshiwon’—are affordable housing often used by university students. Rooms are self-contained with basic furnishings and a private bathroom, while kitchen and laundry facilities are shared.

Please keep in mind however that while mini studios are the cheapest possible private accommodation, the rooms are very small!

Typically, the mini-studios we provide are within a fifteen-minute walk to the Lexis campus, and are a short stroll from a near-endless selection of shops, restaurants and bars. Full CCTV security systems are in place, along with auto-locking doors and on-site security.

I was delighted to attend classes at Lexis Korea Hongdae. The learning environment was well-structured, with classes kept to a comfortable size and teachers who were both professional and approachable. I greatly enjoyed taking my first steps in learning the Korean language, and I attribute much of this positive experience to the high quality and dedication of the Lexis staff.

REBECCA CARONIA FROM ITALY

I took a 3 week Intensive Korean course at Lexis Busan and I am so so grateful for everything I got to learn and experience here. The teachers were really nice and helped in many ways to make learning and going to school again so much fun. Also everything in Busan life were so much fun! I'd choose Lexis in Busan over and over again!
